1. This week we retested the students who completed Reading Improvement No. 32 in February. They showed satisfactory retention of their skill gains.

2. I requested [ ] to arrange for us to review some typical DD/P dispatches, cables, and other reading matter. DD/P students made up 73% of our last class, and they find our present exercises and tests pertinent, but we believe inspecting the actual material will help us guide their applications of the techniques more effectively.

[ ] will consult some operating officials about the matter.

3. [ ] and I attended a meeting of the Washington Reading Improvement Association on Tuesday, 9 April.
